

I strongly urge the commissioners to take up the recommendations of the NYC-Wireless petition (vis. NYCWireless, et al) . The opening of additional spectrum for Low power radio will provide a foundation for rational use of the public spectrum. In addition I strongly oppose the inclusion of identity beacons in wireless devices, such devices raise numerous civil liberties concerns, such mandates have no place in an open society, and should not be instituted at the recommendation of the FCC.